27 DAY HOSTED TOUR
20 AUGUST 2026 - 16 SEPTEMBER 2026

WEST COAST USA

Let's explore California, Utah and Arizona together!

Embark on a relaxed yet richly rewarding small group journey through the heart of the American West, designed for travellers who appreciate comfort, scenery and meaningful experiences. This carefully paced tour takes you from the glamour of iconic cities to the quiet majesty of America's most celebrated natural landscapes.

Begin in California, exploring the highlights of Los Angeles before travelling north along legendary Highway One, one of the world's most scenic coastal drives. Wind past rugged cliffs and ocean views through Big Sur, where the Santa Lucia Mountains plunge dramatically into the Pacific. In San Francisco, enjoy time to discover its famous hills, waterfront and historic neighbourhoods at an easy pace. Leaving the coast behind, the journey moves inland to the awe-inspiring wilderness of Yosemite National Park, renowned for its towering granite cliffs, giant sequoias and waterfalls—some among the tallest in North America. Crossing into the desert Southwest, you'll experience the bright lights of Las Vegas, followed by the striking red-rock landscapes of Utah. Highlights include the unique hoodoos of Bryce Canyon National Park and the flowing sandstone curves of Antelope Canyon, shaped by wind and water over thousands of years.

The journey concludes in memorable style aboard the Canyon Spirit train, offering panoramic rail views through canyons and deserts as you travel to Denver. With comfortable accommodation, expert guidance and the camaraderie of a small group, this tour offers a wonderful balance of iconic sights and serene natural beauty—perfect for travellers seeking adventure without the rush.

- 1 nights' accommodation Denver
- Overnight flight to Sydney, crossing the date line

20th August: Day One (Meals in Flight, Dinner)

Today you will be transferred from your front door (Newcastle/Hunter/Lake Macquarie) to Sydney airport with your fellow travellers. We'll be taking an overnight flight to Los Angeles to start our adventure. Forgot what you think about Los Angeles - it's not just a big city filled with celebrities! We'll be taking you to our favourite spots, great restaurants, iconic landmarks - and we are sure you will leave wishing you had been to Los Angeles sooner. After a long flight, we'll have an early group dinner at a local restaurant.

21st August: Day Two (B, D)

Downtown LA is a dynamic and interesting part of the city. Some tourists are unaware of DTLA (as it's known here), but Angelenos certainly know it and they're voting with their feet, as every week hip new restaurants, bars, Apple stores, creative offices and apartment blocks open in the area. Many people don't realize it's also the best-preserved historic downtown of any major city in America (with some of the best architecture in the world, including many beautiful examples of the Beaux Arts, Art Nouveau, Art Deco, modern and post-modern styles). During the tour you'll see City Hall, the Walt Disney Concert Hall, the Broad museum and take Angels Flight, before stopping for lunch at Grand Central Market. The Market has been a downtown landmark since 1917 and brings together the cuisines and cultures of Los Angeles.

In the afternoon, we'll visit one of the iconic film and TV studios based in Los Angeles. We'll take a behind the scenes look at a true working studio as they create today's award winning TV shows and films. Hollywood is a legacy in LA and this is the perfect way to see how it all happens!

22nd August: Day Three (B, L)

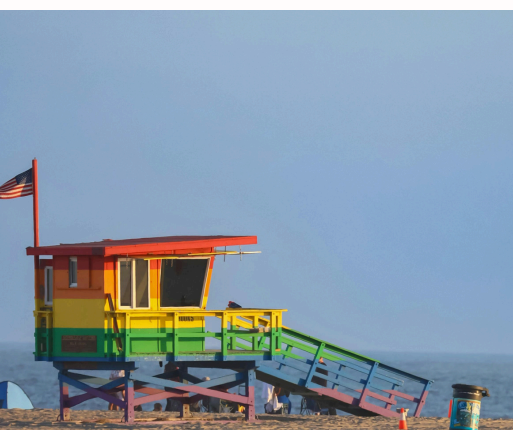

Today we head to the laid-back vibes of Santa Monica and the artistic energy of Venice Beach. Feel the ocean breeze, explore quirky beach shops, and walk along the sandy paths full of local character. Visit the original Venice Canals and the beautifully-preserved Fisherman's Wharf; See the original muscle beach made famous by Arnold Schwarzenegger; and Visit the Jim Morrison mural and check out the small apartment he lived in during the Summer of 1965.

It's not just a tour—it's an experience. With stories, fun facts, and hidden local spots shared by your friendly guide, you'll discover the true spirit of the Pacific coast. Lunch will be included at a local restaurant by the beach. Return to Los Angeles in the late afternoon for a free evening.

23rd August: Day Four (B, L)

Enjoy a delightful day discovering the glamour, history and hidden stories of Beverly Hills and Hollywood, two of Los Angeles' most iconic neighbourhoods.

Begin in Beverly Hills, where palm-lined streets and elegant boutiques set the scene. Stroll along world-famous Rodeo Drive, home to some of the most exclusive fashion houses in the world—just three short blocks long, yet known globally as a symbol of luxury. Pass through the beautifully manicured Beverly Gardens Park, where the classic Beverly Hills sign offers a perfect photo opportunity. Fun fact: Beverly Hills was once a lima bean ranch before oil was discovered here in the early 1900s, transforming it into one of America's most prestigious addresses.

Continue on to legendary Hollywood, the birthplace of the American film industry. Walk along the Hollywood Walk of Fame, featuring over 2,700 stars honouring actors, musicians and entertainment icons. See the historic TCL Chinese Theatre, famous for its forecourt of celebrity handprints—some dating back to the 1920s. Nearby, the Dolby Theatre hosts the Academy Awards each year.

Look up for views of the instantly recognisable Hollywood Sign, originally erected in 1923 as a temporary real estate advertisement. Throughout the day, enjoy fascinating stories of movie legends, classic films and the golden age of Hollywood, bringing this glamorous corner of Los Angeles to life in a relaxed and enjoyable way.

24th August: Day Five (B, L)

It's time to farewell Los Angeles, as we embark on our journey along Highway 1 - one of the most iconic and scenic drives in the USA. Our first stop is in Santa Barbara, where we will take a short walking tour followed by lunch in a local restaurant. Santa Barbara is known as the 'American Riviera' and earned this nickname thanks to its Mediterranean-style architecture, palm-lined beaches and mild climate.

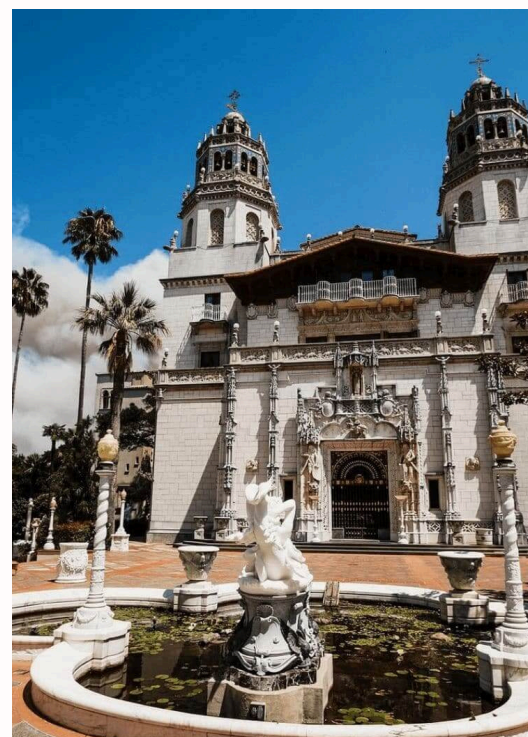

We'll continue to the Cambria area, which is our base to explore this area in more depth than a normal tour! Nestled along California's Central Coast, Cambria is a charming seaside village known for its relaxed pace, coastal beauty and artistic spirit.

25th August: Day Six (B, D)

Today we will be visiting magnificent Hearst Castle, the lavish hilltop estate built by newspaper magnate William Randolph Hearst. With 165 rooms, opulent gardens and sweeping views over the Pacific, the castle offers a fascinating glimpse into the glamour of early 20th-century America and the Hollywood stars who once visited. Our tour of the property is sure to make your jaw drop in awe!

Just along the coast lies one of nature's most memorable sights—the elephant seal rookery at Piedras Blancas. Here, hundreds of enormous seals can be seen lounging on the beach, especially during breeding season, offering wonderful photo opportunities and a unique wildlife experience right beside Highway One. The sounds coming from this seals need to be heard to be believed!

We'll have free time to explore the quaint shops of Cambria before dinner at a local restaurant.

26th August: Day Seven (B, L, D)

Travel north from Cambria to Monterey on one of the world's most spectacular coastal routes, Highway 1, where dramatic scenery unfolds at every turn. This unforgettable day showcases rugged cliffs, crashing surf and sweeping Pacific Ocean views as the road winds along California's Central Coast.

The journey takes you through the heart of Big Sur, a region famed for its wild beauty, towering redwoods and remote coastal landscapes. Pause here for a relaxed lunch surrounded by nature, with time to enjoy the fresh air and remarkable scenery that has inspired artists and writers for generations.

A highlight of the day is a stop at the iconic Bixby Creek Bridge, one of the most photographed bridges in the world. Completed in 1932, this elegant concrete arch spans a deep canyon and perfectly frames the coastline—an ideal spot for photos and quiet appreciation of the view.

Arriving in the Monterey Peninsula, enjoy views of world-famous Pebble Beach Golf Links, consistently ranked among the finest golf courses on the planet. Set dramatically along the coastline, it has hosted numerous major championships and is renowned for its breathtaking oceanfront holes.

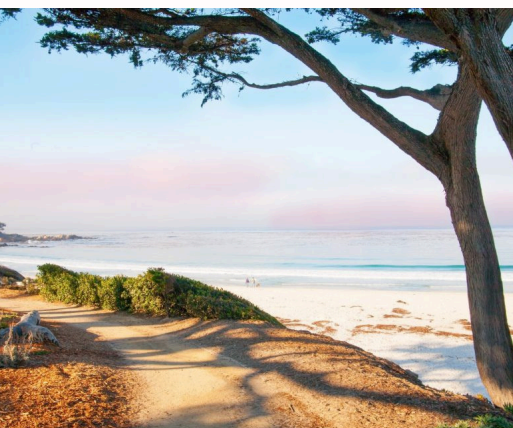

The day concludes in Monterey, once California's first capital and now celebrated for its historic waterfront and rich marine life—an elegant and scenic finale to this legendary coastal drive. After a big driving day, we have two nights' here in Monterey so that you aren't rushed.

27th August: Day Eight (B, L)

Today we will be taking a culinary journey through the storybook streets of Carmel-by-the-Sea - where great food, local history and seaside charm come together beautifully. It's a relaxed and enjoyable way to experience the town, offering a wonderful mix of flavours, fascinating stories and gentle strolling at an easy pace.

As you wander through Carmel's quaint lanes and hidden courtyards, you'll sample a selection of local specialties—from artisan treats to regional favourites—while learning about the people, traditions and creative spirit that have shaped this much-loved coastal village. Carmel has long been a haven for artists and writers, and its fairytale cottages, art galleries and boutique shops reflect that unique heritage. Along the way, your guide will share delightful insights into Carmel's past. Fun facts include the town's famous lack of street numbers, its historic ban on high heels without a permit, and its long association with famous residents such as Clint Eastwood, who once served as mayor. Just a short stroll away, Carmel Beach is often ranked among the most beautiful beaches in the United States, with soft white sand and sweeping ocean views.

Come hungry, bring your curiosity, and enjoy the flavours and stories that make Carmel-by-the-Sea a true gem of California's Central Coast.

This afternoon explore Monterey, a coastal town rich in history, marine life and seaside charm. Once California's first capital, Monterey blends its fascinating past with beautiful ocean scenery and a relaxed, welcoming atmosphere. See where historic buildings sit beside sparkling coastal views. Visit Fisherman's Wharf, a favourite local spot filled with shops, cafés and seafood restaurants, and watch sea lions lounging along the harbour. Monterey is also famous for Cannery Row, once the centre of the sardine-packing industry and now a vibrant stretch of shops and attractions made famous by author John Steinbeck.

28th August: Day Nine (B, D)

It's time to visit the iconic city of San Francisco! We have four nights and three FULL days here in the city - so that we can explore and experience everything there is to offer.

San Francisco is one of America's most distinctive and beloved cities, known for its dramatic setting, diverse neighbourhoods and relaxed yet vibrant character. Built on a series of steep hills overlooking the Pacific Ocean and San Francisco Bay, the city offers iconic views, historic landmarks and a rich mix of cultures. From classic cable cars and colourful Victorian houses to waterfront promenades and bustling markets, San Francisco has a charm all its own. We'll start our adventure with a city tour to give you an orientation of what San Francisco has to offer

29th August: Day Ten (B, L)

Today we are visiting the North Beach area of San Francisco - known for its amazing cuisine. Our walking tour will take us off the main drag and into the beautiful side streets of North Beach and the Barbary Coast. Discover unexpected shops, sites, and bites in this diverse neighborhood. This is a food tour, so come hungry! The places we visit are subject to change but a highlight is sure to be the Molinari Delicatessen (est. 1896), where Pope John Paul II was presented with a Molinari salami from 8-year-old Joey. In between tastings, your guide indicates interesting architecture, beautiful parks, and notable landmarks, all while providing a glimpse into the neighborhood culture and how the locals have shaped the area's cuisine. This is Storytelling at its best — from the Beat Generation and Jack Kerouac Alley to City Lights Bookstore, discover the character of this fascinating neighborhood (all while indulging in some of the best food San Francisco has to offer).

Tonight we'll see the brilliant show 'Dear San Francisco'. Bursting with heart-pounding excitement and death-defying acrobatics, Dear San Francisco will leave you awestruck and amazed. It's an ode to San Francisco with live original music at the historic Club Fugazi—former home of Beach Blanket Babylon.

30th August: Day Eleven (B, D)

A big part of the American culture is sports, so whether you enjoy baseball or not - it's a great atmosphere and experience to have. Please note that our itinerary is based on the current playing schedule - which is subject to change. We'll be seeing the San Francisco Giants play at home, at Oracle Stadium. The San Francisco Giants are one of the oldest teams in Major League Baseball, founded in 1883 in New York before moving to San Francisco in 1958. Oracle Park is considered one of the most beautiful ballparks in the world, set right on the edge of San Francisco Bay with stunning water views. A unique feature of the stadium is McCovey Cove, where kayakers wait in the water hoping to retrieve home run balls hit over the right-field wall—named after Giants legend Willie McCovey. Plus, the food at the stadium is known to be gourmet - so make sure you try the Garlic Fries.

As evening falls, step into the vibrant streets of San Francisco's Chinatown, where glowing lanterns, sizzling kitchens and the aroma of spices set the scene for a memorable night-time food adventure. Wander past bustling markets and hidden alleyways while sampling authentic regional flavours, from handmade dumplings to classic Cantonese dishes. Along the way, discover stories of one of the oldest and largest Chinatowns outside Asia, where tradition, culture and cuisine come together after dark in a truly atmospheric experience.

31st August: Day Twelve (B, D)

Spend a memorable day discovering two of the San Francisco Bay's most iconic experiences. Begin with a visit to Alcatraz Island, where you'll travel by ferry across the bay to explore the former prison made famous by its notorious inmates and dramatic escape stories. The audio-guided tour brings the history of "The Rock" to life, offering fascinating insights and spectacular views back towards the city skyline.

Afterwards, cross the Golden Gate Bridge to the charming waterfront town of Sausalito, known for its colourful houseboats, boutique shops and café-lined harbour. With beautiful bay views and a laid-back atmosphere, Sausalito provides a perfect contrast to the city.

This evening we will have dinner on the waterfront, with time in the afternoon to explore Fisherman's Wharf and the local shops/restaurants around our hotel.

1st September: Day Thirteen (B, D)

Between San Francisco and Yosemite National Park lies one of California's most celebrated wine-making regions, offering a scenic and flavourful contrast to the rugged beauty of the Sierra Nevada. Warm days, cool nights and fertile soils create ideal growing conditions, while winemaking in this region dates back to the mid-1800s, shortly after the Gold Rush. As we leave San Francisco, we'll stop along the way for a tasting and experience at one of the local vineyards.

2nd September: Day Fourteen (B, L)

Spend an unforgettable day immersed in the natural beauty of Yosemite National Park, one of America's most iconic and awe-inspiring national parks. Renowned for its dramatic granite cliffs, towering waterfalls and ancient forests, Yosemite offers breathtaking scenery at every turn. We'll begin with a scenic drive into the park, where sheer rock faces such as El Capitan and Half Dome dominate the landscape. These world-famous granite formations rise thousands of feet above the valley floor and are among the most photographed natural landmarks in the United States. Pause at carefully chosen viewpoints to take in sweeping vistas and capture memorable photos.

Explore Yosemite Valley, the heart of the park, where lush meadows, winding rivers and waterfalls create a constantly changing scene. Yosemite Falls is one of the tallest waterfalls in North America! Enjoy time to stroll gentle walking paths, breathe in the fresh mountain air and appreciate the peaceful surroundings. Wildlife sightings are always possible, from deer grazing in meadows to birds soaring overhead. With its combination of grand scenery, tranquil moments and unforgettable viewpoints, a day in Yosemite is a true highlight.

3rd September: Day Fifteen (B, D)

Today is our 'big' on-the-road day as we travel from Yosemite to Death Valley. The drive is one of California's great landscape journeys—moving from alpine granite and forests into vast desert basins—and it's packed with both natural "land art" and human monuments along the way.

Death Valley National Park is a land of breathtaking extremes, where vast salt flats, flowing sand dunes, and vividly colored hills create one of the most visually striking landscapes in the world. Home to the lowest point in North America and some of the darkest night skies on Earth, the park offers unforgettable scenic drives, dramatic viewpoints like Zabriskie Point, and immersive experiences such as Artist's Drive, where mineral-rich hills appear hand-painted by nature.

4 September: Day Sixteen (B, D)

Today we will be travelling from Death Valley to Las Vegas, and it's where we cross from California into Nevada.

Only in Nevada will you find six times more ghost towns than human-populated areas. That's right - they have more historic mining camps and bygone boomtowns than inhabited cities and towns! We will be stopping for lunch to see the Wild West days of Goodsprings Ghost Town. Even though it now has 200 residents - it's still referred to as a ghost town. Here we will step inside Nevada's oldest ghost town bar, Pioneer saloon. The property was made a Nevada historical landmark in 2007. The walls and ceiling are original stamped tin, and the cheery wood bar was built in the late 1800's - a piece of history in Nevada.

Leaving Goodsprings, we'll make a stop at the famous Seven Magic Mountains. These are seven towers of colorful stacked boulders standing more than thirty feet high! They give the Mojave desert a burst of colour and while it was only supposed to be installed for 2 years - it's so popular it's now celebrating it's 10th anniversary.

Viva Las Vegas! This afternoon we'll arrive into the glamorous playground where great shows start early, dinners are world-class, and the lights are just as thrilling without staying out past midnight. From classic entertainers and fine dining, Vegas delivers excitement with comfort, confidence, and a touch of nostalgia.

Tonight we'll be seeing a Cinque Du Soleil show! Cirque du Soleil shows are more than a performance—it's a visual feast that blends jaw-dropping acrobatics, music, storytelling, and artistry into something truly transporting. With no language barrier, elegant pacing, and world-class production values, Cirque shows are thrilling, and emotionally uplifting - making them one of the most memorable nights you can have in Las Vegas.

5 September: Day Seventeen (B, L)

We'll start our day with a walking tour of the Las Vegas Strip. Around 3km of walking, we'll hear back-stories and history of the Strip. We'll stroll past the Bellagio and its' famous fountains, past Caesars Palace, The Linq, The High Roller, the Mirage and so much more. This is a great orientation of the Strip and you'll have time to explore the shops or relax by the pool after.

This evening we'll be visiting 'downtown' Las Vegas on a food tour! We'll leave the Strip behind for a different side of Vegas, its historic and recently revitalized downtown. It's about experiencing independent restaurants focused on imaginative, seasonal, farm-to-table cuisine - where we will try a few dishes as each stop. Inbetween the stops will be packed with insider information on downtown's colorful sights! This isn't the Fremont Street Experience (which is designed to lure in tourists) - this is the real downtown. It's filled with history, culture, incredible public art, hip mom-and-pop boutiques, and unique, chef-driven independent restaurants that you won't find elsewhere. It may be near the Fremont Street Experience, but it's a world apart.

6 September: Day Eighteen (B, D)

Today you will have the full day in Las Vegas to further explore. You can visit the outlets, only a short drive from the Strip - or perhaps see the Wizard of Oz at the iconic 'Sphere' (tickets at an additional cost). This is a good chance in the itinerary to relax by the pool - or continue to explore the different hotels along the Strip.

You can't visit Las Vegas without seeing one of the iconic 'buffet' dinners. Come hungry as we experience one of the best buffet dinners in Vegas - it's nothing like you've seen before.

7 September: Day Nineteen (B, D)

It's time to leave the sparkles of Las Vegas behind and hit the open road again. We're headed into a country of red rocks, vast desert horizons and natural wonders. A stark contrast to the city lights we are leaving behind! A stop at Hoover Dam offers a chance to stretch your legs, take in impressive views of the Colorado River, and appreciate one of America's most remarkable engineering achievements along the way; and then it's on to the Grand Canyon!

Staying overnight at the Grand Canyon lets you experience its quieter, more magical moments, when day-trippers have gone and the vast landscape feels truly personal. As the sun sets, a guided jeep tour takes you to hidden viewpoints, where shifting light paints the canyon in deep reds, golds, and purples. It's an unforgettable way to see one of the world's greatest natural wonders at its most dramatic.

8 September: Day Twenty (B, D)

Before leaving the Grand Canyon, we'll make some scenic stops to appreciate the vast landscapes that unfold in front of us. From here, we are travelling through to Page, Arizona.

Page sits beside the striking blue waters of Lake Powell—an unexpected oasis in the red-rock desert—and is our gateway to explore famous, natural wonders like Antelope Canyon and Horseshoe Bend. Despite its remote feel, Page has become one of the most photographed places in the American Southwest, proving that great adventures sometimes start in the most unlikely towns!

We'll have two nights here at Lake Powell and it's one of our 'special stays' on our itinerary - the unique, Under Canvas property. Perched on a canyon rim plateau you will have sweeping views from right outside your tent. Here at Under Canvas everyone will have their OWN tents with private ensuite, even if you choose the twin share pricing of the tour. This is a 'dark sky' certified resort - meaning we'll experience the wonders of the night sky like never before.

9 September: Day Twenty-One (B, L)

Our day tour from Page, Arizona begins with a visit to Horseshoe Bend, where we take in the breathtaking view of the Colorado River looping dramatically around a sandstone cliff, one of the most photographed sights in the Southwest. We then enjoy lunch at Big John's Texas BBQ, a local favorite known for its relaxed atmosphere and classic smoked flavors.

In the afternoon, we explore Antelope Canyon on a guided tour, walking through smooth, sculpted sandstone walls shaped over millions of years by water and wind. Sacred to the Navajo people, the canyon was named after the antelope that once roamed the region, and its narrow passages glow as sunlight filters down through the stone. Along the way, our local guides share the canyon's history, cultural significance, and tips for capturing its remarkable beauty.

10 September: Day Twenty-Two (B, L)

We leave Page behind and travel into the lush, soaring landscapes of Zion National Park, where towering sandstone cliffs rise dramatically above the valley floor and the scenery feels refreshingly green and peaceful. Zion is Utah's oldest national park, and its name means "place of refuge," a feeling that's easy to understand as we take time to enjoy the calm surroundings. We stop for a relaxed lunch in the park, surrounded by views that have inspired artists and explorers for generations, with plenty of time to soak it all in without feeling rushed.

In the afternoon, we continue on to Bryce Canyon, famous for its otherworldly rock formations known as hoodoos—tall, delicate spires shaped by ice, wind, and time. Bryce actually sits at a higher elevation than the Grand Canyon, which gives the air a crisp freshness and creates some of the clearest night skies in the region. We arrive in time for sunset, when the amphitheater glows in soft pinks, oranges, and golds, creating a truly magical moment. An overnight stay nearby lets us relax in comfort and enjoy Bryce Canyon at its most peaceful, with the promise of more unforgettable views the next morning.

11th September: Day Twenty-Three (B, D)

This morning, there is the option to enjoy the beautiful Fairyland Loop, a scenic 9–10 km walk that showcases some of the most spectacular views in Bryce Canyon. While the walk is considered moderate and includes a gentle uphill section toward the end, we take it at a relaxed pace with plenty of time to stop, rest, and enjoy the scenery. The trail winds through Bryce's famous hoodoos, revealing a wonderfully surreal, storybook-like landscape that invites frequent photo stops. For those who prefer a gentler pace, alternative options include a flat walk along the canyon rim or a relaxing morning at our lodge, allowing everyone to enjoy Bryce Canyon in a way that feels comfortable and enjoyable.

Early afternoon, we'll be travelling through to Moab for our overnight stay.

12th September: Day Twenty-Three (B, D)

Enjoy a slow morning, exploring the eclectic and artistic Main Street. Here you'll find locally owned boutiques, art exhibitions and cafes that showcase the character of the town.

Early afternoon it's time to board the 'Canyon Spirit' for what is sure to be a highlight of our adventure in the USA. We'll have two days onboard, enjoying the extraordinary landscapes from the comfort of the train. You'll see vast canyons, inspiring deserts, natural archways and enchanting hoodoos.

Onboard dine on delicious locally inspired foods as you cross from Utah into Colorado. Stunning mountain views in the background are the perfect backdrop as we arrive into Glenwood Springs. (We don't sleep on the train overnight. We disembark and stay in Glenwood Springs).

13th September: Day Twenty-Four (B, L)

Departing from Glenwood Springs, we re-board the Canyon Spirit, settling in for a relaxed journey that includes both breakfast and lunch served onboard. As the train glides through some of the most spectacular scenery in the Rocky Mountains, we enjoy uninterrupted views of dramatic red-rock canyons, towering cliffs, and the winding Colorado River flowing far below. Crossing the Continental Divide is a highlight of the journey, offering a rare chance to experience this historic geographic boundary in comfort and style. The slow pace and panoramic windows make it easy to fully appreciate the ever-changing landscape, as remote wilderness gives way to open plains. Soon, we arrive in the vibrant city of Denver, where our unforgettable rail journey comes to a close.

14 September: Day Twenty-Four (B, L)

Denver is a lively yet relaxed city where modern culture meets stunning mountain scenery. With fresh mountain air and a friendly atmosphere, Denver is the perfect place to unwind and reflect after our memorable journey through the American West.

After checking out of the hotel, we'll take a sightseeing tour through the city. Starting at the stunning Union Station, our local guide will bring the city to life with entertaining stories, fun facts, and a few surprises along the way. From gold rush legends and Wild West showdowns to the famous figures, scandals, and architectural wonders that shaped Denver. Along the route, you'll see Denver's hidden gems and the most famous sights, including the historic Capitol Hill neighborhood, the world-class Denver Art museum, and a must-see skyline viewpoint with the Rocky Mountains as your backdrop. You'll hear tales of heists at the U.S. Mint, the famous VIPs of the Brown Palace, and the incredible story of Titanic survivor Molly Brown. Plus, no visit to Denver is complete without a stop at the Mile High Steps, where you can stand exactly 5,280 feet above sea level for the ultimate photo opportunity.

After a late lunch, it's time to go to the airport and bid farewell to our time in the USA. Due to the time difference, we'll be in the air for the 15th September, and land in Sydney on the morning of the 16th September: Day Twenty-Six of our tour.

Please note: While this itinerary includes specific restaurants, hotels and activities, occasional changes may occur due to circumstances beyond our control—such as venue renovations or updates to group dining availability. Rest assured, any adjustments we make are thoughtfully chosen to enhance your overall experience. We appreciate your understanding and flexibility, as part of the joy of travel lies in embracing the unexpected and discovering new highlights along the way.
